

B.C. reinstates province-wide mask mandate for indoor public spaces

B.C. has reintroduced a mask mandate for public indoor spaces across the province.

Provincial Health Officer Dr. Bonnie Henry announced the reinstatement during a news conference on Tuesday. The new mandate comes into effect on Wednesday and applies to people aged 12 and older in B.C.

Masks are now mandatory to enter this facility.

